RETURN TO CAMPUS PLANNING

* RTC core group + subject matter experts

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Provide an equitable and supportive learning environment that places high importance on the health and safety of our students and employees
- Keep the needs of our students at the forefront of the decision-making process
- Follow the guidelines and regulations of applicable federal, state and local agencies to ensure that the District is making responsible decisions and providing a low-risk work and learning environment
- Provide a clear and transparent process that maps out the pathway for various instructional programs and services to return to campus while also addressing a return process if a more restrictive status is declared by state or local direction
- Understand that this plan is a work in process and may need to change to fit new requirements or needs as they are identified
